Courtney Bryan's piece comes out of the African-American experience and style. There are moments that sound like jazz, that sound like gospel, and what Helga Davis does with that is extraordinary. Bringing experimental trumpeter Peter Evans to San Diego is another great treat—you will not believe what he can do! We will hear Peter in both Rand Steiger's Template and a new arrangement of an Ornette Coleman classic. Faure's glorious choral masterpiece, Requiem, closes the program, and is the perfect counterpoint.
